Your Comic Script

(The cat is sitting on a windowsill, looking out at the birds outside.)
Cat: (sighing) Oh, to be a bird... free to fly wherever I please.
Mouse: (peeking out from behind a nearby curtain) Yeah, but have you ever tried being a mouse? It's not all it's cracked up to be.
Cat: (surprised) Really? Why's that?
Mouse: (whispering) Well, for one thing, mice get eaten. A lot. And don't even get me started on the whole 'hiding from cats' thing.
Cat: (chuckling) I never thought of it that way... maybe being a mouse isn't so bad after all!
Mouse: (smiling) See? Told you it wasn't all it's cracked up to be.
Note: This is a very short script, and the dialogue is simple and straightforward. The characters are not fully developed, but they are meant to be humorous and relatable in a lighthearted way.
